

Join me, Julia Trickey, as we look over the shoulder of renowned botanical artists from the UK and beyond.

In these 45 minutes sessions delivered via Zoom, artists will talk through their favourite projects or botanical art techniques. Their presentations will be illustrated with examples of their artwork and/or technique demonstrations which will be followed by the opportunity for Q&A.

YOU WILL GET

- Live presentations from experienced botanical artists.
- Unique insights into working practices, recent projects or favourite techniques.
- Tips and ideas for your own botanical art projects.
- Interactive Q&A opportunity.
- The chance to meet artists in the UK and beyond, from the comfort of your own home.

YOU WILL NEED

- A good internet bandwidth.
- A Zoom account using the desktop client or mobile app (rather than the website).
- A reasonable understanding of Zoom, including the Chat facility if you wish to ask a question.

WHAT NEXT

After payment (via PayPal) you are taken to Zoom where you need to register for the meeting. Zoom will then email you a unique meeting link. Keep this safe as you will need this to access the meeting and we won't have a copy of this. You should not share this link, as it will only allow one person access to the meeting.

MEETING ETIQUETTE

The session will start promptly so please arrive a few minutes beforehand, where you will be held in a waiting room before the presentations start. We can then check your registration. For this reason your place cannot be transferred to anyone else.

During the meeting, you will need to be on mute with your video off. This should be set up for you by the host when you arrive, but can be changed during the meeting, if need be.

Questions can be written in the Chat area and will typically be answered after the presentation.

SMALL PRINT

- We are not able to give tech advice.
- No refund if you are unable or forget to attend.
- Places are not transferable.
- Any disruptive behaviour will result in being excluded from the meeting and any further sessions
